
Any car parked too close to corners, hydrants, or otherwise in prohibited areas will be ticketed, and OWNER WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR PAYING FINE.

PARKING – A parking map of the area is printed on the opposite side of this letter. You may park for free at the following locations:

- Temple parking lot – PLEASE RESERVE FOR ELDERLY AND HANDICAPPED congregants.
- Very Limited Parking IS PERMITTED ON UNIVERSITY AVENUE!
- 404-406 University Ave. (Medical Office Building) –EVENING SERVICES ONLY
- 1200 East Genesee Street parking lot – Enter from Genesee Street. This building is open for business and there are weekday parking restrictions; parking will be limited to available spaces. During evening services there are no restrictions. You may obtain a parking validation pass at the Temple entrances BEFORE & AFTER services; give the pass to the parking attendant when EXITING the lot*. The parking pass is necessary for daytime services on Monday, September 17, Tuesday, September 18 and Wednesday, September 26.
- On-Street parking on BOTH sides of Walnut Avenue (between Genesee & Harrison Streets) is available. Parking is prohibited in front of hydrants or too close to corners.
- On-street parking on only one side is available on Madison Street Please observe all parking restrictions – Madison Street is too narrow for parking on both sides.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY (SU) PARKING PASSES MUST BE OBTAINED

BEFORE* HIGH HOLIDAYS BY CALLING THE OFFICE

- Lehman (SU) & Harrison (SU) parking lots for evening services only
- SU Parking Garage for Sept 17, 18 & 26 daytime parking. There is a fee of $5.75/3 hours.

Any* car parked too close to corners, hydrants, or otherwise in prohibited areas will be ticketed, and OWNER WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR PAYING FINE.